

Videos - More info

Most of these videos are short. Each one adds to the mosaic of issues and problems the public has to deal with.

“Con with the Wind” movie trailer <http://www.conwiththewind.com/>

“... a passionate and inspirational look at the myths, facts and lies surrounding big business interests in the Wind Farm Goldrush.”

Sign up on their web page to receive notice of movie distribution.

“Take back your legal rights” <http://www.windturbinesyndrome.com/news/2010/take-back-your-legal-rights-to-protect-your-community-against-turbines/> shows how one community used the services of The Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund to challenge the system. Their problem is not wind industrial complexes but maybe we can use this idea to continue our battle.

From their website “Helping community groups and municipalities write and adopt laws that assert community rights, including the right to local self-government, the rights of nature, and the subordination of corporate privilege to the rights of the community.”

56 worldwide experiences <http://www.windturbinesyndrome.com/videos.html>

Web page with 56 videos showing many problems others are experiencing around the world, the battles they are waging, their frustrations and successes.

The very first one is also “Take back your legal rights”.

It’s worth your time to see what others are going through. Share these videos with others.